

Introduction

Learn more about our current portfolio of properties.

My-Trulli is a developer of character properties within the southern Italian region of Puglia.

Our properties include both renovated Trulli (which exist uniquely in Puglia) and idyllic rural homes within easy reach of historic centres.

We have recently launched a new site which showcases our finished stock of properties. Please visit <http://www.mypuglianvilla.co.uk> for more information.

Please use the links provided below to view our full stock of properties.

Luigi's Place

FULLY RENOVATED AND READY TO OCCUPY. Standing on an elevated area within a plot of land close to Ceglie, Luigi's Place will be developed into a delightful country villa.

The House on the Hill

FULLY RENOVATED AND READY TO OCCUPY! Located on a hillside with views across open country towards Ostuni, The House on the Hill offers an idyllic retreat within easy reach of a busy historic centre.

C. da Sardella

The impressive barrel vaulted rooms of this property cannot fail to impress; they form the centre-piece of what will be a stunning residence.

The White House

A traditional white-painted Trulli, standing within a large plot of rural land populated with almond and olive trees.

C. da Cotogna

A unique renovation, consisting of two buildings facing each other across a stone courtyard, to be developed into a distinctive country residence.

The Cube (SOLD!)

An example of a recently completed project, sold earlier in 2007. A contemporary villa built around an historic rural building, with a separate lamia providing a self-contained guest bedroom and bathroom.
